

a detection is per conformer; clusters span the ensemble absent in input (cryptic) present in input b opening relative to the input peak across ensemble in input structure